HOP INTO SOUTH BANK FOR EASTER SCHOOL HOLIDAY FUN

Brisbane kids will have lots to do this Easter school holiday with fun galore at South Bank's Suncorp Piazza.

Bug Art - free art activities presented by Hands on Art and inspired by 'Museum Zoo' at the Queensland Museum, will be available at workshops that run from 10am – 3pm, Monday 9 April – Thursday 12 April in the Suncorp Piazza.

Hands on Art Executive Officer Cate Collopy said that kids will have the opportunity to make shiny beetles and interesting insects out of some fabulous art materials.

"Come along and make fabulous bug badges for every outfit and create creepy crawly creatures on sticks, and bounce them through the bushes," said Cate.

"And the best thing is there is no need to be afraid of spiders and snakes when you've made them yourself for free!

If bugs have your kids heading in the opposite direction, let them run away and join the Flipside Circus.

Deb Wilks, General Manager of Flipside Circus said the fun and energetic circus workshops will be held in the Suncorp Piazza from 12noon – 3pm, Tuesday 10 April – Thursday 12 April 2007.

"Our classes are a great way for kids to stay active during the holidays.

"Flipside Circus is all about having fun, and our drop-in workshops are a great way to entertain children and parents alike," Deb said.

The talented Flipside Circus troupe will perform at 12noon, and for just $5 kids can join drop-in workshops and learn to juggle, skip, hula or just practice clowning around!

Workshops are suitable from ages 5 – 16 years. No bookings required.

Make sure you stop by the Bungee Trampoline outside the Suncorp Piazza from 5 – 15 April 2007. Bounce around for $10 a ride, 10am – 8pm daily.
