EMERGING BRISBANE MUSICAL TALENT ON DISPLAY AT SOUTH BANK

Students from the Queensland Conservatorium Griffith University Bachelor of Popular Music course will be playing a free concert in the South Bank Parklands on Saturday 11 August as part of the Conservatorium's 50th Anniversary celebrations.

The music kicks off in South Bank's Cultural Forecourt at 5:00pm with all-female duo The Hussy Hicks and concludes at 9:30pm after headline performances from The Dan Carroll Band, The Cool Calm Collective and The Combovers.

Other artists performing at the event include Chris Mallory and the 2 and 4s, Bark at the Moon and Bitrok.

South Bank Corporation Events Manager David Contarini encouraged popular music fans to come to South Bank and show their support for Brisbane's emerging popular music talent.

"Brisbane has been a real hot-bed for Australian popular music in recent years and this is a great opportunity for the public to check out the next generation of performers before they hit the big-time," David said.

"It's an alcohol-free event that's open to all ages, so bring the whole family down and enjoy some great music with the city's evening skyline and Brisbane River as the perfect backdrop for what should be a thoroughly entertaining night."

South Bank's Cultural Forecourt is located at the northern end of the Parklands, adjacent to the Queensland Performing Arts Complex.
