SENIORS KICK UP THEIR HEELS AT SOUTH BANK

Senior's Week kicks off with a bang at South Bank's Suncorp Piazza next Sunday 19 August with a fun-filled day of music dancing and entertainment from 8:30am to 3:30pm.

Highlights will include Buddy Holly, Dusty Springfield and Roy Orbison tribute shows as well as Brisbane's "Senior Superstar" finalists, rock n' roll and line dancing, and a demonstration by the Musgrave Park Cultural Centre performers.

South Bank Corporation Events Manager David Contarini said the launch of Senior's Week at South Bank was a great opportunity for Brisbane's seniors to really show the younger generations how to have fun.

"The program is packed full of music, dancing and entertainment and promises to be a great day for not only seniors, but for their families as well," David said.

"It all kicks off with a free breakfast served by volunteers from local Lions Clubs and continues with a packed schedule of musical performances in the Suncorp Piazza throughout the day."

Seniors Card holders will also be able to check out a range of Queensland businesses which offer special discounts under the Queensland Government's Seniors Card Business Discount Scheme.
